Subject: Consultant Agreement No. C-59-51

Dear

I am returning the subject agreement and related materials which you sent to me in your letter of 16 March 1959. It will not be necessary at this time for me to be reimbursed by your organization for travel expenses incurred in connection with my participation in the project.

If at some future date it should become necessary to make such an arrangement, I will notify you of this requirement at the earliest possible moment.

Very truly yours,

Arthur C. Lundahl

SUBJECT: ACL's Participation in WS 117L Committee

I have thoroughly reviewed Agency Regulation and cannot find any specific references or procedures concerning this type of activity.

In my opinion, I think the primary factor to determine is whether or not ACL is participating on this Committee as a representative of CIA, a CIA employee on parttime detail to another Government activity, or as a private individual.

If he is serving on the Committee as a representative of CIA, the basic question is whether CIA, as a matter of common concern, wishes to share part or all of the expenses involved with his participation on the Committee.

If he is serving as a CIA employee on parttime detail to another Government activity, there should be a basic agreement between CIA and the activity covering reimbursement for services.

If he is serving as a private individual, this is then a security matter involving subversive activities. If this is the case, then he would be entitled to receive full compensation for services, travel, or any other financial agreement he might reach with them provided there was no conflict of interest. In addition, if he is serving on this Committee as a private individual, the Agency should not be paying for the cost of any travel in connection with it without approval from higher authority.

If you would like, I will be glad to make inquiries with [redacted] or [redacted] regarding this matter.
